Colorado Mandatory Disclosure Statement

Jason Blalack, MS, Dipl.Ac., L.Ac. – Open Gate Acupuncture · 745 Poplar Ave, Boulder, CO 80304 · (720) 675-7297

Welcome to my office. Please read this statement and ask any questions you have, then sign and date below.

Education, experience, and licenses

M.S. in Traditional Oriental Medicine, Pacific College of Oriental Medicine, San Diego, 2002: a four-year, 3,300-hour degree, including 900+ clinical hours focused on Chinese herbology and Western disease integration. NCCAOM Diplomate in Acupuncture and Traditional Chinese Medicine, 2002. Bachelor's degree in Alternative Health, 1998. Postgraduate study in Taiwan with Dr. Lee Chen-Yu and ten study trips to China, including with my mentor Dr. Wu Bo-Ping, with whom I co-wrote and translated an herbal textbook. Published numerous articles on Chinese medicine and lectured internationally and locally. Owned a Chinese raw herb pharmacy, 1999–2017. Trained in moxibustion, tui na, acupressure, cupping, auriculotherapy, Toyohari and esoteric acupuncture, custom herbal formulas, and diet and lifestyle recommendations.

Member, Acupuncture Association of Colorado and American Association of Oriental Medicine. Licensed acupuncturist in Colorado (license 864); inactive acupuncture and Chinese herbal medicine license in California. None of these licenses, certificates, or registrations has ever been suspended or revoked.

Sanitation. This clinic follows Colorado Department of Public Health and Environment rules for needle sterilization and office sanitation, and uses only single-use, sterile, disposable needles.

You will receive a receipt for each charge and can update or remove your card at any time.

Patient's rights

You are entitled to information about the methods of therapy, the techniques used, and the duration of therapy, if known. You may seek a second opinion from another health care professional or end therapy at any time. In a professional relationship, sexual intimacy is never appropriate and should be reported to the director.

Acupuncture is regulated by the Colorado Department of Regulatory Agencies. For comments, questions, or complaints, contact the Director, Division of Professions and Occupations, Office of Acupuncture Licensure, 1560 Broadway, Suite 1350, Denver, CO 80202, (303) 894-2988.

I have read and understood this statement and authorize the card-on-file charges described above.
